

LESSON 17

Chapter 13:12-17

<sup>12</sup>When Jesus finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and went back to the table. He asked, "Do you understand what I did for you?" <sup>13</sup>You call me 'Teacher.' And you call me 'Lord.' And this is right, because that is what I am. <sup>14</sup>I am your Lord and Teacher. But I washed your feet. So you also should wash each other's feet. <sup>15</sup>I did this as an example for you. So you should serve each other just as I served you. <sup>16</sup>Believe me, servants are not greater than their master. Those who are sent to do something are not greater than the one who sent them. <sup>17</sup>If you know these things, you will be happy if you do them."

LET'S PRACTICE!

Jesus says, "I am your _____ and _____. But I washed your feet. So you also should wash _____'s feet. I did this as an _____ for you.

How does Jesus expect his followers to act after what he has done?

What does Jesus mean when he says, "Servants are not greater than their master"?

Can you think of reasons why we resist following Jesus' example?
