

LESSON 20

Chapter 15:9-17

⁹"I have loved you as the Father has loved me. Now continue in my love. ¹⁰I have obeyed my Father's commands, and he continues to love me. In the same way, if you obey my commands, I will continue to love you. ¹¹I have told you these things so that you can have the true happiness that I have. I want you to be completely happy. ¹²This is what I command you: Love each other as I have loved you. ¹³The greatest love people can show is to die for their friends. ¹⁴You are my friends if you do what I tell you to do. ¹⁵I no longer call you servants, because servants don't know what their master is doing. But now I call you friends, because I have told you everything that my Father told me.

¹⁶"You did not choose me. I chose you. And I gave you this work: to go and produce fruit – fruit that will last. Then the Father will give you anything you ask for in my name. ¹⁷This is my command: Love each other."

LET'S PRACTICE!

"If you _____ my commands, I will _____ to love you."

Why does Jesus teach this to his followers?

What is the command of Jesus?

What is the greatest love a person can show?

Which is better, to be a servant or a friend? How do we become friends of Jesus?
